BLACK HISTORY MONTH LECTURE

Tuesday, February 18, 2014
6pm - 8pm
Bard Hall Lounge
60 Haven Avenue

Come join us as we celebrate Black History Month!
Dinner will be provided.

Guest Lecturer
Dr. Samuel Roberts
Associate Professor of Sociomedical Sciences at Mailman School of Public Health at Columbia University

author of Infection Fear: Politics, Disease, and Health Effects of Segregation

Black History Month is an annual celebration of achievements by Black Americans and a time for recognizing the central role of African Americans in U.S. history.

RSVP by Friday, February 14, 2014 by clicking the link below:
https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/L3FT576